Report of Violation of Conditions of Pretrial Release

COMES NOW Mirenda R. Kirksey, U.S. Probation Officer, presenting a report to the Court upon the conduct of defendant, Shaniqua Hendrix, who was placed on pretrial release supervision by the Honorable U.S. Magistrate Judge Rebecca Rutherford sitting in the Court at Dallas, Texas, on September 28, 2020, under the following conditions:

(3) The defendant must advise the Court or the pretrial services office or supervising officer in writing before making any change of residence or telephone number.

(7a) The defendant must submit to supervision by and report for supervision to the U.S. Pretrial Officer.

The undersigned has information that the defendant has violated such conditions in each of the following respects:

On September 28, 2020, the defendant was released on conditions of pretrial supervision and instructed by the Court to go directly to the inpatient substance abuse program, Homeward Bound, in Dallas, Texas. She was ordered to complete a 30-day inpatient program and thereafter to reside with her mother, Dianne Hendrix, at 502 Sea Rim Drive in Arlington, Texas. The defendant was provided the name of U.S. Probation Officer Kyle Wolf, as a contact, while in Homeward Bound. On October 2, 2020, USPO Wolf provided the defendant this officer's name and contact information based on the defendant's proposed home plan. The same day, the defendant contacted this officer and was informed to call when she obtained an anticipated completion date for the substance abuse program. On October 20, 2020, the defendant advised this officer that she would complete the program on October 29, 2020. The defendant was instructed to call upon her release from Homeward Bound and to report to the Fort Worth Probation Office on November 3, 2020, at 11 a.m. Shortly after the conversation, Homeward Bound Counselor Mary Cassio contacted this officer to confirm the date and time the defendant was to report to the probation office.

On November 3, 2020, the defendant failed to report to the probation office as previously instructed. On November 4, 2020, this officer attempted to contact the defendant, unsuccessfully; however, a voice message was left that she should contact this officer immediately. On November 19, 2020, this officer attempted to contact the defendant unsuccessfully, and a voice message was left for a return call. The same day, the defendant's mother, Dianne Hendrix, advised the defendant was released from Homeward Bound on October 29, 2020, and the defendant reported to her home where she resided for one day. Ms. Hendrix advised the defendant left her home with a friend the following day and she has had no further contact with her since October 30, 2020.
